1. At a small week-end party for higher state employees on the June 25th week-end, Werner Eggerath, the Minister-President of Thuringia, informed the gathering that, after the unified-list elections, the SED and all other political parties of the Soviet Zone would be dissolved and a single party, called the "Nationale Front Partei", would be organized.
2. Eggerath furthermore announced that the DDR voters will be called upon to decide by plebiscite, on about the 15th of October 1950, whether to join the Eastern Economic Bloc.
